

'There's no business like it' with Three Mens Company

Bristol-based revue group Three Mens Company will be making a return visit to the Cossham Hall, Thornbury at 7.30 p.m. on Friday 24th November 2017. The title of the show is inspired by Irving Berlin's classic show-stopper from Annie Get Your Gun, "There's No Business Like Show Business".

Narrator John de Barham, pianist John Marsh and baritone Jeremy Watkins will present another of their unique Words and Music entertainments featuring the world of Music Theatre in all its forms. Favourite numbers from musicals, opera, operetta and revue, together with piano pieces and writings about the theatre feature in this light-hearted, seamless sequence, which will be in two parts.

The Artists will be donating their services and proceeds of the evening will benefit the Armstrong Hall Redevelopment Fund ( Phase 1).

Tickets £10 (to include interval finger food) from Thornbury Town Hall or call 01454 412272.